Preferential Tea Fetes Sorority's New Members

Climaxing their rushing season, Eta Kappa Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, a Preferential tea was held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 1744 Cranbrook St., president, on Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4 p. m.

Blue and gold, chapter colors, were used in decorating. A floral centerpiece of variegated gold chrysanthemums with accents of royal blue ribbon was on the lace covered table. Blue tapers in gold holders flanked the floral arrangements.

Mrs. William Poser, Mrs. O. L. Winn, Jr. and Mrs. R. R. Bardick were initiated as new members in an impressive candlelight ritual. The pledge pin was presented to each new member with a colorful corsage of giant yellow chrysanthemums.

The official yearbook of the chapter with the events planned for the season became the pledges' handbook.

After a six months period for the provisionals they will receive their jewel pins in a second degree ceremony.

Launching new members into the world of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, was the cutting of the cake decorated in the chapter flower, the jonquil and inscribed in blue lettering, "Eta Kappa's Launching Pad."

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Louise Verne, rush chairman and Mrs. McVey, hostess. Members attending were Mmes. Harry Hunting, John Meehan, Charles Leitchweiss, Michael Bruccoleri, Stewart Angus, and Louis Verne.

gave me a bracelet for my birthday. He said it was gold. My wrist turns green every time I wear that bracelet. My girl friend says good jewelry doesn't turn the skin green, and that my boy friend gave me a cheap present. True or false?—MARIETTA

Dear Marietta: False. Your body chemistry may well be to blame. Some people, because of an abundance of certain acids in the system, get green marks from a variety of metals which touch the skin.

Dear Ann Landers, I have to write this letter or flip my lid. I bottled over when I read the attacks on you by lazy women who don't want to pick up after their husbands. May I have a few inches of newspaper space to say something in behalf of those of us who think you are right—that picking up after a husband is part of being a decent wife.

I've known women who knock themselves out for organizations. They run to meetings, spend hours on the telephone, bake like crazy for church bazaars and haul tons of rummage in their cars. But when it comes to doing something extra for their own family, they scream like wounded elk.

A woman's basic satisfactions should come from her home. If these dames don't think so, why did they marry?—A REAL WIFE

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.
